Is this the most beautiful car Ferrari never built?

Lead

It was in a bookshop in Mexico City in the 1960s that José Fernandez first saw one of Giovanni Michelotti's high-waisted Ferrari Grand Tourers. He'd have to wait until the summer of 2018 for his coach-built tribute to the visionary designer to finally be finished. Meet the Ferrari 330GT Speciale...

A dream finally realised
