

CLASSIC DRIVER

Stop dreaming - here are 10 cool classics you can actually afford

Lead
Contrary to common belief, you don't need to have a bottomless bank account to park a certified collector car on your driveway, and Historics Auctioneers' upcoming Summer Serenade sale on July 20th is packed with affordable classics. We picked 10 below!

With collector car values on the rise for what feels like decades now, it's easy to forget that there are still plenty of affordable classics out there that won't break the bank. Historics Auctioneers' upcoming Summer Serenade sale at Windsorview Lakes on July 20th is proof of that, with dozens of classics below 20,000 pounds among the auction lots. These aren't semi-dissolved rust buckets either, but rather some seriously tantalising metal, including a 1999 BMW 840Ci Sport, an Alfa Romeo Spider S4, and even an iconic R107-generation Mercedes SL or two. We picked 10 cars that offer that irresistible classic driving experience on a budget below, but be sure to check out the rest of the lots because we're just scratching the surface!
