Lead

Continuously finding and surpassing the limit of extremes, BMW's M Division is the hallmark of performance and drivability. Now in their 52nd year, it seems the wizards turning standard cars into supercar killers are only just getting started...

Looking for the perfect super saloon to propel you across the Autobahn, before a quick detour around the Nürburgring? Fancy a spacious Touring allowing you to bring the family pet along to your early morning mountain pass blast? There's a BMW M car for that, and one for just about anyone looking to get the utmost out of their journeys, no matter how short or mundane they may seem.

From the super sleek M5 to the track focused M4 GTS, BMW M has applied its rich history in motor racing to create high performance road cars unlike any other brand out there. Despite laying its foundations on the track, M Cars are renowned for their ability both on the street or on the racetrack. With thousands of colour options and unique specifications available, the hard part is choosing the right car for you!
