

CLASSIC DRIVER

Are you a Classic Driver? Let us tell the story of you and your car

Lead

Every car has a story to tell – and we’re curious to hear more about your passion for cars and your favourite classic in our new article series “The Classic Drivers”.

No matter if you have recently bought the Mercedes-Benz Uhlenhaut Coupé or you daily a Fiat Panda 4x4 – with the right attitude and passion for unusual automobiles, everyone can be a Classic Driver. That’s why we want to dedicate our new article series “The Classic Drivers” to you, our readers. After all, you can always learn most about a car by listening to its owner. And an automobile might reveal a thing or two about the personality behind the wheel. So if you own an interesting car who’s story we need to tell, please drop us an email to editor@classicdriver.com together with some more information about yourself, your automotive passion and your car (or collection) – and some nice images so we get an even better idea. And who knows, maybe your car story will be shared with our global audience soon. Please just mind that we might not be able to consider all applications. For inspiration, here are some true Classic Drivers we have featured over the years.
