

CLASSIC DRIVER

Is your collection worthy of these masterpieces from The Academy of Art?

Lead
Car collectors will want to mark February 15th in their calendars as Broad Arrow Auctions will be offering over 100 cars without reserve from the Academy of Art University Collection. Here are some of the greatest masterpieces up for grabs.

It's already clear that 2025 won't be short on nail-biting auctions, and one of the most exciting sales of the year will take place on February 15th in San Francisco as Broad Arrow Auctions are preparing to offer over 100 incredible collector cars from the Academy of Art University Collection. Over the last several decades, this world-renowned collection has been curated first by longtime President of the Academy of Art University Dr. Richard Alan Stephens, who then passed the torch to his daughter, Dr. Elisa Stephens. Now The Academy is looking to pass on a portion of their exceptional collection to like-minded enthusiasts and collectors, and we've picked 10 cars that immediately caught our eye from the sale!

10 automotive artworks we'd drive home from San Francisco:

Gallery

