

CLASSIC DRIVER

MV Agusta 'Disco Volante' in Bonhams' 2 February Paris Sale

Lead

In 1950s Italy, it wasn't only Alfa Romeo that produced a model blessed with the sobriquet 'Disco Volante'. Motorcycle manufacturer MV's 175CS Sport was also so-named, this time after the voluptuous profile of its fuel tank when viewed from above.

Bonhams will offer a 1953 MV Agusta 175cc 'Disco Volante' complete with surprisingly car-like sidecar (its original, and in almost 'Gulf Porsche' paintwork...) at its forthcoming, 2 February sale. The combination is just one of 34 motorcycles in the catalogue.

Estimate: 10,000 - 13,000 euros. Full preview of the auction to follow.

Photos: Bonhams

Gallery

Source URL: <https://www.classicdriver.com/en/article/mv-agusta-%E2%80%98disco-volante%E2%80%99-bonhams-2-february-paris-sale>

© Classic Driver. All rights reserved.