Of course you are unlikely to ever need them, but owners of 348 and 355 models will find this brown, heavy leather case – complete with tools – by Ferrari’s then luggage supplier Schedoni irresistible.

The 39cm-wide case comes complete with a variety of internal trays and a selection of spanners, pliers and screwdrivers. It will be offered by Bonhams at its 14 September, Goodwood Revival auction. Estimate: £700 – 900.
