'The Stig' - Bryan Adams sets the scene with the Jaguar XF

Lead

It's no longer a secret that Bryan Adams is an excellent photographer, as well as a fantastic singer. The Canadian's latest shoot features the new Jaguar XF, the results of which can be admired in Munich from next weekend...

The exhibition is titled 'The Stig - photography Bryan Adams', referring to the famous anonymous racing driver from the BBC's Top Gear programme (hence the female model's masked face). Produced in London in collaboration with Zoo magazine, the images can be seen from 23 January to 21 February in the first German Jaguar Land Rover boutique, at Munich's Odeonsplatz.
