RM Sotheby's strikes while the iron is hot with collection of 42 Porsches

Lead

'Strike while the iron is hot' as the old saying goes - amid stronger demand than ever for so-called 'youngtimer' Porsches, RM Sotheby's has consigned a Swiss collection of 42 cars that it will offer at no reserve...

A sought-after selection

While the collection - which encompasses both older and younger Porsches - will be sold at a number of different RM sales around the world, each car is offered with no reserve price. Thirteen cars from the 42-strong collection will cross the block at the Paris sale on 8 February 2017, including a 1994 911 Turbo S 3.6 (est. 650,000-750,000 euros), a 1988 959 Sport (1.5-2m euros), a 2004 GT3 RS (200,000-250,000 euros) and a 2004 GT2 Clubsport (175,000-225,000 euros).
