Be prepared for all 24 hours of Le Mans with these Piloti driving shoes

Lead

Driving shoes have often had a somewhat limited aesthetic appeal, but with the limited-edition 24 Hours of Le Mans Pilotis, form and function go hand in hand...

Show and go

Combining modern technology and retro styling is never easy, regardless of the product, but Piloti's racing-inspired pieces, created in partnership with the 24 Hours of Le Mans, offer practical vintage cool for driving fans. Two models are available, the Ligne, a classic, gentleman racer-styled boot, and the Piloti Circuit, a low-cut, McQueen-esque shoe, with both featuring Roll Control Heel technology, which was first tested at Le Mans. Sure to make an impression on both your lap times and your spectators, these driving shoes are made to perform hour after hour...
