It's been five years since watch expert Romain Réa and Porsche sales director Michel Mathieu collaborated with international collectors for a 50th-anniversary celebration of two 20th Century icons – the Porsche 911 and the Rolex Daytona Cosmograph. Now, on the occasion of their 55th anniversary, the Monaco Legends Group has teamed up with Antiquorum and Franco Lembo to organise a unique thematic auction. Among the 40 lots due to cross the block in Monte-Carlo on 19 July are several examples of the sought-after 'Paul Newman' Daytona, in addition to rare Porsche 911s such as the 2.5 ST from 1970, a Carrera 3.0 RSR from 1974, a 930 Flatnose from 1982, and a 964 Speedster from 1993. The entire catalogue can be found listed in the Classic Driver Market.
