Stock Check: Hyman Ltd. Classic Cars

Lead

With a stock list that typically exceeds 200 motorcars, it's small wonder that variety is the spice of life at Hyman Ltd. in Missouri, USA. But just how diverse its inventory is truly boggles the mind. These are our favourites...

While he was at college, Mark Hyman bought and sold his first car for a profit. The car in question was a Facel Vega and it's ironic that the characteristics of that French Grand Tourer – namely its rarity and exclusivity – define his dealership's stock today, 29 years after he founded the company. At Hyman Ltd. you'll currently find a one-of-two Mercer Type 35R from 1911, a Jaguar XJR-5 Group C/IMSA prototype, a stunning blue Lamborghini Countach 'Periscopio', and a beautifully restored International Harvester Scout II, for example. So whether you're in the market for a Pebble Beach winner, a sound place to park some money, or an affordable sports cars for that stolen Sunday drive, we're sure there will be something to fit the bill at Hyman Ltd. You can find our favourites below or, alternatively, browse its entire inventory of stock in the Classic Driver Market.
