Lead

The annual Bonhams auction at Beaulieu is a feast for collectors - in addition to an extremely generous selection of automobilia, many exciting classic cars will also cross the block. These are our favourites...

On 7 September 2019, Bonhams invites you to the National Motor Museum at Beaulieu for a bumper automotive auction. In addition to more than 400 interesting items of automobilia, 125 collector cars will also be offered. The spectrum ranges from the early pioneering days of the motor car to modern classics built at the turn of the new millennium. And many of the latter, in particular, boast attractive pre-sale estimates. We'd love to bid on the following cars, but if they're not to your taste, you can browse the entire catalogue in the Classic Driver Market.
