For their winter sale on 27 November in Vienna, the specialists at Dorotheum have compiled a splendid catalogue of 180+ fine wrist and pocket watches. Here are our favourites.

So far, 2020 has not been the most pleasant of years. So why don't you treat yourself, or your loved ones with one of the classic collector watches from Dorotheum's upcoming sale? Browse the catalogue in the Classic Driver Market, and you will find some beautiful, well-patinated and highly desirable vintage watches by Rolex, Patek Philippe and Vacheron Constantin. Even if your budget is limited to two or three thousand euros, you might be able to take home some of the most iconic watches from the 1970s and 1980s like an Omega Speedmaster, a Heuer Calculator, a Zenith El Primero or an IWC by Porsche Design.

We would bid on these watches at Dorotheum's 27 November sale
