Get ready for your next Californian road trip with these essentials

Lead
Whether a blast down the Pacific Coast Highway is on your calendar or not, you can add some Californian sunshine to your next drive with these essentials in the CD Shop.

Now that a trip to California to sample some of America’s best driving roads is more of a reality than a pipe dream thanks to easing travel restrictions, we’ve been daydreaming about which essentials we’d pack for our next adventure to the Golden State. CURVES Magazine is always good place to start when planning a road trip, and luckily there’s an edition dedicated entirely to Californian tarmac in the CD Shop. As for what to wear, you can’t go wrong with a good 8JS t-shirt, while Duke + Dexter’s Ritchie sneakers are the perfect shoes for a summer holiday. Of course, you’ll need some equally stylish luggage, and there’s plenty of eye-catching Rimowa suitcases to choose from, helping to ensure you’re rolling in style both at the airport and on the open road. Finally, why not pick up one of The RBook’s stunning prints to serve as a reminder of your Californian getaway. There’s plenty more in our Californian-inspired collection of essentials, so take a look below!
