If you're longing for some luxury in your life, Historics Auctioneers upcoming sale at Ascot Racecourse on 8th April have a pair of Bentleys that will transcend you to a world of early 2000s decadence... all for a fraction of the price of its launch price!

If you've always longed to experience pure luxury on four wheels, but your budget can't stretch the dizzying heights of a brand-new Bentley, we might have found the answer, and there's a few to choose from!

The Arnage made its debut in 1998, alongside its Rolls Royce badged sibling, the Silver Seraph, and combined pure indulgence with impressive performance figures to match. Over its nearly decade-long lifespan, the Arnage was the super saloon that oozed style and sophistication, often the choice of A-list celebrities and international businessmen.

Nowadays however, while models like the Bentayga and Continental GT continue the brand's journey to leather-filled heaven, the Arnage can be bought for next to nothing. These two examples heading to Historics Auctioneers upcoming sale at Ascot Racecourse are ideal candidates, both being used properly with just under 100,000 miles on the clock and retaining their charm and style along the way. With estimates ranging from EUR 14,600 to 22,000, the time to invest in these British brutes is most definitely right now!
